A) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1. Landlord's Approval: Tenant will not permit any signs, advertisements, banners, pennants, insignia, trademarks, posters or notices to be displayed, inscribed upon or affixed on any part of the storefront brick or glass without prior written approval of Landlord.

B) SPECIFIC CRITERIA

1. Allowable Signs. Restaurants may also include "shirts and shoes required" and up to three neon signs. All allowable signs and their placement must meet the criteria set forth below and must be approved in writing by Landlord prior to placement.

See Exhibit A for three acceptable storefront layouts. Items may be subtracted from Tenant's chosen layout, but additional items may not be added to any of the layouts.

1a. Company Name. Tenant's company name is to be in white vinyl letters, 2 to 3 inches high, in the Helvetica Font. In lieu of a company name spelled out in lettering, Tenant's logo may be reproduced on white film. Total allowable space to be taken by either lettering or logo is two feet by two feet.

1d. No Soliciting. "No soliciting" lettering is to be in white vinyl letters and placed either below Tenant's company name or to the right/left of company name. Size of lettering may vary from 1 to 2 inches, depending on available space.

entry door. The sign shall measure no more than approximately 16 by 36 inches, including the border, and shall consist of plain red lettering with a blue border (of the type which is commonly available at office/business supply stores). In lieu of a neon sign, a uniform "open/closed" sign may be adhered to the glass window below or to the right or left of the company name. This sign must consist of a metal frame into which a plastic "open" or "closed" strip can be inserted. This sign will be a maximum of 4 inches high and 14 inches long.

If. Help Wanted. One "help wanted" sign may be attached to Tenant's storefront glass as necessary. The sign may be of the type readily available through office supply stores, but must be clean and in excellent condition and must be no larger than 9 by 12 inches.

Banners may be hung inside or outside windows, or may be hung on the fascia in a fashion that does not cause nail holes or other penetrations into the fascia. Any repairs will be charged to Tenant.

Specific scheduling for display of the banner or sign, and a photograph or other artist's rendering of the banner or temporary sign must be submitted in writing to Landlord at least 30 days in advance of the intended display. Landlord's approval will be given in writing only. Banners and temporary signs will be allowed up to two times per year per tenant.
